Step 20: Select Download

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a file download dialog box open. The background is the North Texas Libraries website, featuring the logo "NORTH TEXAS" and the text "North Texas Libraries on the Go" with the URL "WWW.NTEXLIBRARIESONTHEGO.ORG". There are also images of people and the text "OverDrive Media Console".

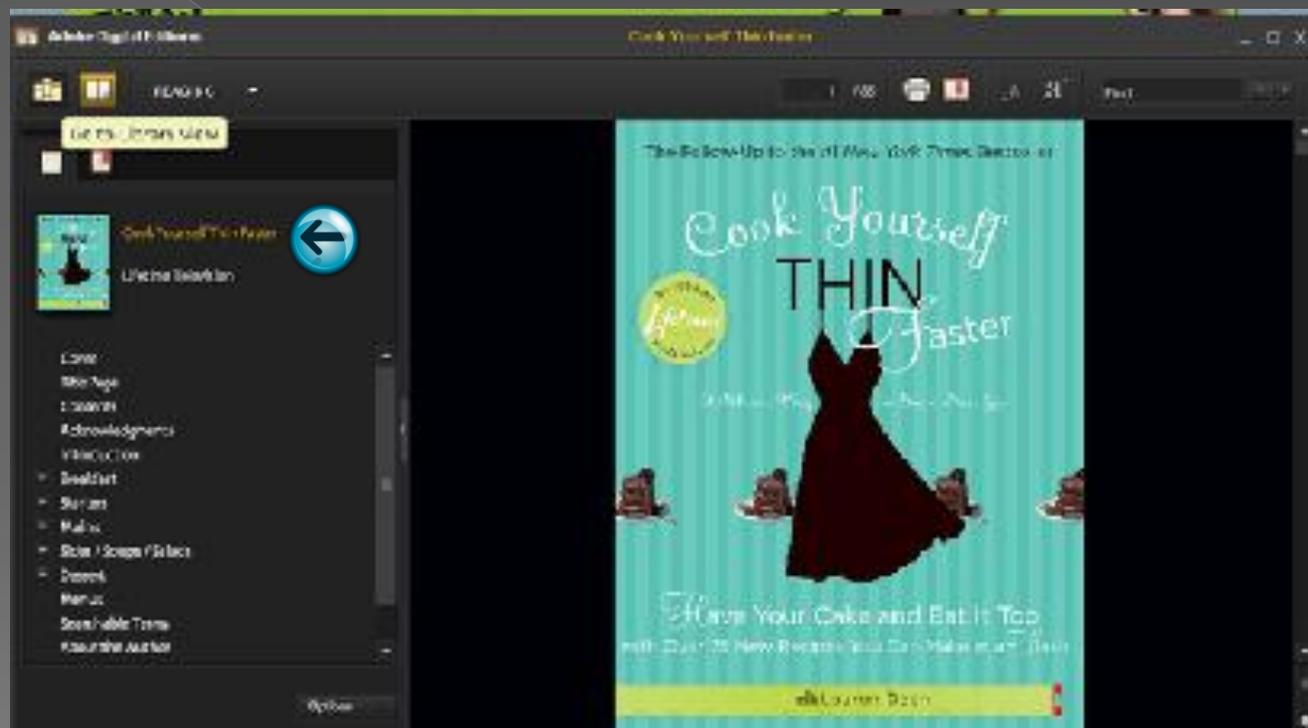

The file download dialog box has a blue title bar that says "File Download". The main text asks "Do you want to open or save this file?". Below this, it lists the file details:

- Name: CookYourselfThinFaster.acsm
- Type: Adobe Content Server Message, 1.88KB
- From: ofs.contentreserve.com

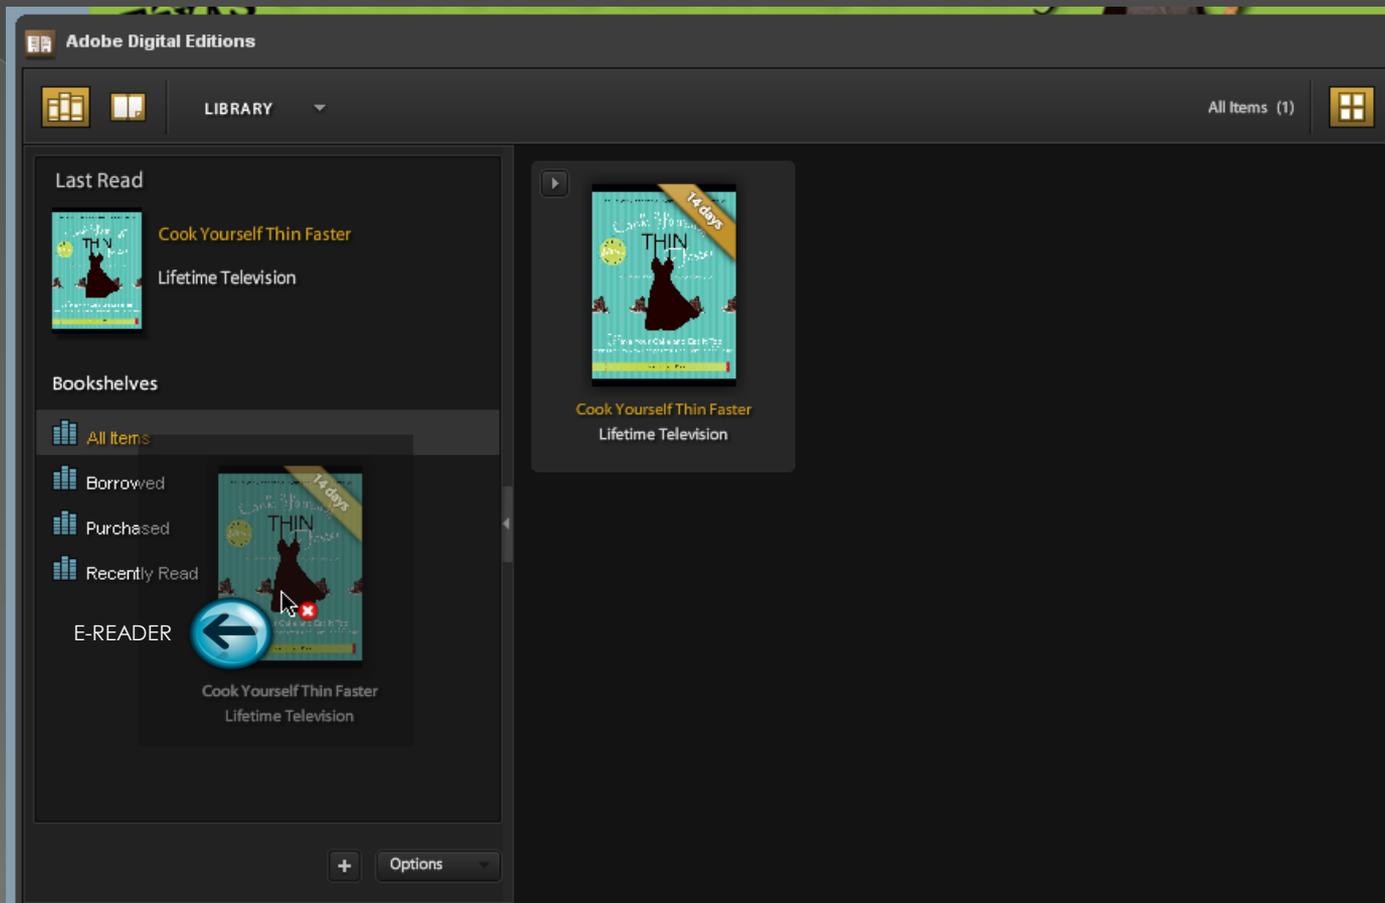

At the bottom of the dialog, there are three buttons: "Open", "Save", and "Cancel". A blue circular arrow cursor is pointing at the "Cancel" button. Below the buttons, there is a checked checkbox labeled "Always ask before opening this type of file". At the very bottom, there is a warning icon and text: "While files from the Internet can be useful, some files can potentially harm your computer. If you do not trust the source, do not open or save this file."

Step 21: Select Save

Adobe Digital Edition Library

Step 22: You should see the downloaded book in your library. You can read the book on your computer or download to your e-reader.

You should see your e-reader in the bottom left. Click and drag your book into your e-reader. Once it has finished downloading you should be able to view the document on your e-reader.
